GOVERNMENT'S MEMORANDUM IN OPPOSITION TO THE DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO CONTINUE SENTENCING

On September 28, 2006, the defendant filed a motion to continue sentencing. Sentencing is presently set for October 16, 2006. The basis for the motion is that the defendant's new counsel needs more time to familiarize himself with the case.

The government is adamantly opposed to any further delays in this case. The government believes that the defendant has manipulated the court and the government in seeking one delay after another. The defendant pleaded guilty on October 17, 2003, almost exactly three years ago. The presentence report has been prepared and filed. The defendant's counsel can familiarize himself by reading the presentence report and by talking with the defendant's two prior lawyers. There has to come a time when this case is finally concluded and the government believes that there is no time like the present. The government, therefore, opposes the motion to continue the defendant's sentencing.

DATED: October 5, 2006, at Honolulu, Hawaii.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD H. KUBO, JR.
